Our Beard of Trade

Where, Oh where is that Board of trade we have heard about in Sonoma? Is it dead or just sleeping? If dead let's bring it to life, and to such a life that it will show activity and progress. It is very essential to the welfare of Sonoma and is a thing we must have in order to keep up the progress of modern times. It is not necessary to rob people with an exorbitant membership fee, nor is it always necessary to run the city in debt in every move we make.

There is some talk of reorganizing the Board of Trade. Don't let it stop at talk. Act, and those in the lead have only to call a meeting and they will find plenty of followers.

Does it not stand to reason when we say we have only to seek capital and capital will seek us? The advantages of Sonoma Valley are enough to attract capital alone, and with a little encouragement from those in authority it will be easy to have any kind of an enterprise we want, and we want many.

Do you think there is a fruit grower in the valley who would not gladly donate from $10 up to get a cannery here, when he will reap many times that amount during one season? Look what a cannery would bring to our city and valley during one season—enough to satisfy all. Then the fruit growers would cease to be robbed by commission men and cease to pay high prices for boxes, etc.

What valley is more in need of a cannery than this? In our mind all dairymen would welcome one and give it a large share of their patronage.

It is time we were up and doing, so don't delay, you who are in authority, but bestir yourselves, and all join hands in improving this wonderful valley of unbounded resources, making it the valley of Sonoma county, equalled by none. We can do it easily. Listen not to the kickers, but all join hands and pull with might and main and then watch the results in just one short year.

Let's Boom Sonoma

Let's boom Sonoma Valley. It needs booming, and if gone about in the right way it will boom.

The summer season will soon be upon us and all the resorts and private boarding places will be filling up and, no doubt, this will be a prosperous summer season for all. But this must be gone about in a systematic way or all will stand for naught. Resorts and boarding places must co-operate with the Northwestern Pacific R. R. Co. and get their places listed properly and early in the "Vacation 1909." Then they must get a hustle on and send out their own literature promiscuously, attracting as much attention as possible, to their own particular place, vying with each other to stand most prominent. If this is done then Sonoma Valley will have the banner year of all years and will be more thoroughly in touch with the summer boarders. It is safe to say that many of these same people will return from year to year for an outing, and many, will eventually locate permanently in this valley of sunshine, flowers, fruit and all that makes life enjoyable and worth living. This is the valley of future happiness and the valley equalled by none.

Mrs. Noble's Farewell Party

The resignation of Mrs. Mary B. Noble, for the past six years Matron of the California Home for Feeble Minded Children, at Eldridge, in the Sonoma Valley, has occasioned much regret at that institution. Mrs. Noble's resignation took effect Monday and she will assume the duties of Matron of the Masonic home at Decoto. She was very popular at the home, both with the children and other employees.

On Monday night Mrs. Noble was tendered a farewell reception and received many costly and useful gifts from officials and inmates. The gathering was held in the Assembly hall. Dancing was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The hall was prettily decorated.

Library Building

At the last meeting of the library trustees at Glen Ellen the hope was expressed that it would not be long before a suitable little building for a library could be erected. Dr. C. C. O'Donnell has promised a lot and as a nucleus for the building fund the trustees have a small sum on deposit in a bank. The trustees are General Theodore Wagner, president; Leopold Justi, Henry Chavet, Frederick Quisen and Th. Johnson, the latter being the secretary.

Lincoln Celebration

On Friday afternoon, February 12th, in spite of the inclemency of the weather, a large and enthusiastic audience gathered at Union Hall to listen to a fine program given in honor of the 100th birthday of that great American statesman Abraham Lincoln. The meeting was called to order shortly after two o'clock by Mayor George Breitenbach, introducing the president of the day Mr. Robert A. Poppe, who made a few appropriate remarks. Miss Emily Poppe then rendered on the piano the ever popular solo, "The Stars and Stripes Forever." Rev. S. L. Lee offered an invocation. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" was then sung. "Abraham Lincoln, his place in history" was the subject of an interesting paper read by Miss Margaret More. Seymour Trowbridge then recited Lincoln's Gettysburg address, while Lincoln's second inaugural was the subject chosen by Otto Drosel. The hymn "Let Us Forget" was then sung. Rev. W. C. Day read a few extracts and quotations from the letters and writings of Abraham Lincoln, followed by a vocal solo, "My Native Land," by Miss Ida Waterman. Mr. Lincoln's favorite poem, "Oh, Why Should the Spirit of Mortal be Proud," read by Mr. Randall A. McDonnell, was the next feature. Mr. Richard Platt made an able address on the "Elements of Lincoln's Greatness." The audience then sang "America," and with a benediction by Rev. S. L. Lee, were dismissed.

The celebration was under the management of the following committee: Robert A. Poppe, Prof. George C. Russell and Prof. Jesse Prestwood.

Judgment Awarded

In the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the County of Sonoma. Dept. 1.

F. C. Loomis, plaintiff, vs. Connecticut Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., (a corporation), defendant No. 6565.

We the jury find for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,000, with interest thereon from August 6, 1906, at the rate of 7 per cent.

This was the verdict rendered by the jury in Judge Seawell's department of the Superior Court one day this week in the suit of Frank C. Loomis against the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company, to recover the sum of $1,000 the amount of plaintiff's policy on the stock of goods in his store at the time of the disaster on April 18, 1906, which claim together with the others on policies it had in Santa Rosa, it repudiated.

For the fourth time this week judgment went against the weighing company, three other judgments against it having been awarded in the Superior Court of Sonoma county.

Mr. Quilici Passes Away

P. U. Quilici passed away at his home in Oakland last Sunday. Deceased was an honest, industrious man and had many friends who sincerely mourn his departure. He leaves a widow and three children to mourn his loss. He was a nephew of S. Ciucci and L. Quilici, both of this city, who went down Tuesday to attend the funeral, which took place in Oakland Wednesday afternoon.

New Pictures

Francisco Bescioni informs us he has received another lot of moving pictures and will exhibit them to night, Saturday and Sunday evening. The pictures this week are "The Bandit King," "Distress King Hearts," "Cock Fighting in Seattle." The following songs will be rendered: "When Sweet Marie was Sweet Sixteen," and "When the Evening Breeze is Sighing."

Special exhibits Saturday and Sunday afternoons of this week.

Taken to Ukiah

Mrs. A. Bertram, an aged lady, who is over eighty years, was taken to Santa Rosa Tuesday by Constable Ryan charged with insanity, on a warrant sworn to before Justice of the Peace Jos. B. Small, by one of our local business men. Wednesday she was given a hearing before Judge Thos. Denny, of the Superior Court, and she was ordered to the Ukiah state hospital. Robert A. Poppe, Fred T. Duhring and Judge Small were summoned as witnesses in the case. Drs. J. W. Jesse and P. J. Menery were the medical inquisitors.

Now that we have observed Abraham Lincoln's birthday in a manner due its importance, let us try to get back to some of the honest, homely, patriotic sentiments held by that illustrious citizen of our commonwealth, from which it would seem we have drifted.—Saul's Letter.

Fred. Helberg, Sr., took a party of friends to Vallejo Sunday in his launch "Success". On his homeward run, thought a short-cut would bring him to his destination sooner, but as none of the party were familiar with the various sloughs, they found themselves on the mud flats. "Various remedies were tried each year, with no beneficial results. In November last the cough again put in an appearance and my wife, acting on the suggestion of a friend, purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The result was indeed, marvelous. After three doses the cough entirely disappeared and has not manifested itself since." This remedy is for sale by L. S. Simmons.
